DIRECTORS

Article 14 The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than seven (7) and not more than fifteen (15) persons. No less than one half of the total number of directors shall have residence within the Kingdom. The directors of the Company shall have qualification as specified by law.

Article 15 The election of the Board of Directors shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures as follows:

- (1) Each shareholder shall have one vote on each share.
- (2) In voting, a shareholder shall vote in accordance with the number of votes each shareholder has under (1) for one or several directors. The said shareholder may not allot any number of his votes to any person.
- (3) The person obtaining the highest and higher votes respectively shall be elected as directors equal to the number of directors required or ought to be elected at such a meeting. In the event that persons receiving votes in respective orders receive equal votes and the number of directors exceeds the positions required or ought to be, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 16 At every Annual General Meeting, one-third (1/3) of the directors, or, if their number is not a multiple of three, than the number nearest to one-third (1/3) must retire from office.

The directors to retire on the first and second years following the registration of the Company shall be drawn by lots. In every subsequent years, the director who has been longest in office shall retire. A retiring director is eligible to re-election.

Article 20 The shareholders' meeting may resolve to remove any director from the office before the expiration of his term of office by having votes of not less than three quarters (3/4) of the number of shareholders attending the meeting and having the rights to vote and the aggregate number of shares shall be not less than one half (1/2) of the shares held by all the shareholders attending the meeting and having the rights to vote.

SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Article 30 The Board of Directors shall call a shareholders meeting as an annual general meeting within four months from the last day of the accounting year of the Company.

Any shareholders meeting other than the one referred to in the first paragraph shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Board of Directors may call a shareholders meeting as an extraordinary general meeting any time the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

One or more shareholders holding shares in aggregate of not less than ten percent of the total number of shares sold may, by subscribing their names, request the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary general meeting at any time, but the matters to be discussed and reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In this case, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a shareholders meeting to be held within forty-five days from the date the request is received from the shareholders.

In the case that the Board of Directors does not call a shareholders meeting within forty-five days from the date the request is received from the shareholders, shareholders who subscribe their names or other shareholders who hold shares in aggregate as prescribed by law, may call the shareholders meeting within forty-five days from the date the period of forty-five days which the Board of Directors is required to call a shareholders meeting has lapsed. In this case, it shall be deemed that the shareholders meeting is called by the Board of Directors and the necessary expenses arising from the arrangement for such shareholders meeting and any reasonable facilitation shall be borne by the Company.
